GOVERNOR WANTS FARMERS ARMY OF SHARPSHOOTERS

Governor Culbert L. Olson made the following statement today

"Once again the embattled American farmer may become a decisive factor in the protection of our liberties. Under a plan sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Division of the University of California, at my request that the Division has begun the task of enrolling 100,000 men and boys between the ages of sixteen and sixty-five on our Califarnia ranches and farms, into rifle companies which will be trained by retired army officers, reserve officers and veterans of the first World War, to repel parachutists, suppress fifth columnists, protect lines of communication, and operate as guerrilla warriors in the event of attack or invasion.

"The Agricultural Extension Service, through its Director, B. H. Crocheron, and its County Agents who are located in rural areas and have detailed familiarity with every neighborhood in the State, will do the actual enrolling of volunteers.

"It is estimated that upon the 130,000 farms of California there are at least 100,000 men who are too old or too young for regular military service, but who possess firearms, in the use of which they are expert. Men who have been accustomed to hunt deer and quail may be expected to be of considerable value in guarding their own farms and neighborhoods if given suitable training.

"These rural military companies will furnish their own arms, ammunition and uniforms. It is to be clearly understood that this army of sharpshooters will be called out for active duty only in the event of an actual invasion or attack by the enemy. In purpose, this large body of armed citizens will be analogous to the Home Guard of England which, starting with a few thousand men and women, now number more than two million well armed and well trained part-time soldiers. Australia is likewise hastening the organizaton of such an armed force.

"The plan has the approval of General John L. DeWitt, Commander of the Fourth Army and Western Defense Command, with whom I discussed the matter at a recent conference at the Presidio," the governor said.

CLERICAL WORKERS WANTED BY LOCAL RATIONING BOARDS

SACRAMENTO — Kenneth I. Fulton, acting executive director of the California State Council of Defense, today sent out a call for volunteer clerical workers for duty with rationing boards in their respective communities.

Fulton asked county and city defense council officials to assist in the drive for volunteer help, pointing out that until such time as provision is made to engage salaried workers, the present staffs are inadequate to cope with the mounting volume of work.

Application blanks have been received at local postoffices upon which certain classes of aliens entitled to exemption from evacuation orders may fill in and file at Draft Board No. 75 in Niles. Postmasters will help any of the following classes of aliens fill in these forms:

German and Italian aliens over 70 years of age, or those having members of their families serving in the armed forces; persons in hospitals or institutions, or confined to their homes by sickness; German and Italian aliens awaiting action on prior applications for naturalization; and those totally blind, deaf or dumb.

NILES MOBILE UNIT

Another first aid mobile unit has been secured for Washington Township and will be located at the Niles Fire House. Dr. L. H. Buehler and Mrs. A. B. Leask have been transferred from Centerville Mobile Unit and assigned to the Niles Unit. First Aiders for Niles Unit will be announced later. Dr. W. L. McWhirter has been assigned as doctor for the Centerville Unit and Mrs. W. L. McWhirter as nurse, according to F. T. Dusterberry, Township Red Cross chairman.

JAPANESE WARNED TO DISPOSE OF THEIR PROPERTY

Colonel Karl R. Bendetsen, Lt. Gen. DeWitt's assistant chief of staff for Civil Affairs, today delivered a final warning to west coast Japanese and other evacuees.

Because certain groups of evacuees have failed to respond to repeated warnings by the Wartime Civil Control Administration Colonel Bendetsen issued a lengthy statement in order to dispell the hopes of some evacuees that the Army will relax its regulations and allow certain groups to remain.

"The removal of evacuees from designated areas is a matter of absolute military necessity. We have given repeated warnings but apparently it has done little good.

"The evacuation, which some believe may extend over many months, will do no such thing. We have accelerated the program, streamlined the entire setup, and every government agency involved in the problem has been integrated into a unified organization."

"Now that assembly centers and reception centers are being prepared to receive them the evacuees will move out in ever increasing numbers.

"For the last time the Army is warning evacuees to make arrangements for disposition of their property. They should go to the Federal Reserve Bank and get its advice in order to bring about equitable disposition of property. Over 60 W.C.C.A. general offices have been opened along the coast to aid evacuees in solving the problems which accompany liquidation of property."

"We are trying to protect the evacuees from exploitation by persons taking advantage of their forthcoming departure which is drawing nearer each day. If any evacuees hope to retard the entire evacuation program because he has not taken steps to dispose of his property or settle his other problems he will be disappointed. Neglected personal and property matters will not for one moment obstruct the evacuation."

ADDITIONAL FIRE HYDRANTS BEING INSTALLED NEARBY

Contractor E. E. Dias is installing six standard 2½ inch fire hydrants along Highway 17 and three more on the Niles - Centerville highway for the Alameda County Water District at present, he reported at the Monday luncheon meeting of the Niles Chamber of Commerce held at the City of Florence Restaurant.

An additional hydrant is needed near the Niles Elementary school in order to provide adequate fire protection, he said.

President T. C. Wilson instructed Secretary A. J. Petsche to find out from the State Highway Department if the junction between Jack Biale's and the railway track at the California Nursery corner could be surfaced; also if either Slow or Stop signs could be erected outside the entrance to the California Nursery company's grounds; and to learn the status of the wigwag signal which was approved last fall for placing at the Western Pacific crossing near the Pacific States Steel plant.

Another brother, Russell, resides in Niles. Friday night Corporal Jones was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duffie.

WORKERS WANTED!

The Washington Township Air Raid Warning Service, with Observation Posts at Alvarado, Newark, Niles and Warm Springs has been functioning since December 7th, 1941, with J. J. Vieux as the Supervisor.

Working under the 4th Interceptor Command, each Post reports all types and flights of planes, as seen and heard by the Observers.

Eighty-four persons per week, working in shifts of 4 hours each, with two observers on duty each shift, are required to man each post.

Each Post has a Chief Observer who is responsible for obtaining the necessary persons to man the posts at all times.

This is the most vital part of the volunteer work of our communities and should have the support of every one, women as well as men. Any one having 4 hours per week to give to this work should contact the Chief Observer of their immediate district. They are as follows — Andy Logan, Alvarado; Kenneth Foster, Newark: Kenneth Green, Niles, and Clyde Jones of Centerville for the Warm Springs district.

HAPPY "DOWN UNDER"

Friends in Niles received a letter this week from Niels Nielsen, formerly of Niles. He sent word that he was well and "happy" and that the people of Australia were very kind to U. S. service men. He had been ice-skating once and was having difficulty mastering the English broque and money-changing. He had received mail dispatched from Niles a few weeks ago.

FARMERS URGED TO TAKE OVER JAPANESE FARMS

SAN FRANCISCO — Farmers who wish to take over farming operations vacated by Japanese and Japanese-Americans must make their own arrangements with the Japanese to purchase or lease the land, or to take over the present lease, L. I. Hewes, Jr., regional director of the Farm Security Administration, declared today in correcting misunderstandings about the government's role in transferring Japanese land.

"Some people have been under the impression that Farm Security has taken over these farms and is assigning new operators to them." Hewes said. "This is not correct. We are bringing the Japanese and operators interested in their farms together and are refereeing arrangements between the two. If a farmer is qualified to operate the land, we will assist him in getting operating credit after he has acquired the land, providing other credit is not available.

"Applicants for these farms should report to the Farm Security agent at the Wartime Civilian Control Administration" Service Centers" located in U. S. Employment Service offices, but we warn them that it is idle to do so unless they are experienced in this highly skilled type of agriculture and unless they are financially able to make the initial arrangements for operating the land."

U. S. Department of Agriculture State and County War Boards are cooperating fully in finding new operators and stand ready to arbitrate arrangements between them and the Japanese, Hewes said.

JUNIOR CHAMBER WANTS DONORS FOR BLOOD BANK

The Niles Junior Chamber of Commerce held its monthly dinner meeting Tuesday evening at the City of Florence Restaurant with Jack Parry presiding and nine members present.

Lewis Lewis, chairman of Scouting said the entire Niles Troop of 20 boys will spend this Saturday and Sunday on their first overnight camping trip up Stony Brook canyon. Fred Duffie will be in charge Saturday afternoon and Lewis will take charge on Sunday.

Ed Enos read a report on the Chamber's youth welfare projects, which will be presented to the annual national convention in Dallas, Texas this June. It covers the Chamber's sponsoring of Scouting and Junior Traffic patrol activities, a Christmas and a Hallowe'en party for children of the town, etc.

Henry Vervais said there is some illegal parking going on within the town limits of Niles, particularly outside the postoffice and the body moved to have Secretary Duffie write the State Highway Patrol requesting an officer to drop in now and then and place warning tags on cars which are parked the wrong way or on the wrong side of the street.

Local citizens, who are Chamber members or otherwise are to be solicited to give a pint of blood to assist in the blood bank project under civilian defense, with the Junior Chamber to provide transportation and arrange an appointment at an Oakland hospital as soon as enough persons can be found who are willing to part with a pint of their blood.

Walter Waynflete offered to get free windshield stickers to give to motorists who will "Keep It Under 40" miles per hour, obedient to President Roosevelt's request and the body authorized him to go ahead and print the name of the Niles Junior Chamber at the bottom. Enos consented to arrange distribution at the Niles Postoffice.

The secretary was instructed to write L. A. Vieux, secretary of the Niles Sanitary District, drawing his attention to the fact the main sewer leading from Niles has developed leaks which require repair.

Wedding Solemized Saturday Afternoon At Mrs. Ford's Home

Miss Jean Adams of Palo Alto who is well-known in Niles, was married to Mr. Clayton Ivor Stafford of Los Altos at a ceremony solemnized at the home of Mrs. William Henry Ford of Niles in the presence of more than a half hundred intimate friends and relatives Saturday afternoon at three o'clock.

Before an improvised altar in the living room of the home banked with white azaleas and tall sprays of spring blossoms the nuptial service was read by Rev. Gilbert Parker Prince, pastor of St. Andrews Episcopal church of Oakland. The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law Dr. William H. Sargent of Oakland and her matron of honor was a cousin Mrs. Edward Griffith of Alamo. Miss Karral Adams of Walnut Grove, a niece, was the flower girl. Attending the groom as best man was Dr. Yvor Winters of Los Altos and a member of the Stanford University faculty.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of gold taffeta made with close-fitting basque with long sleeves and collar of rose point lace, and full skirt. She carried an arm boquet of Talisman roses. The matron of honor wore coral organdie and carried an old-fashioned boquet of yellow daisies with a coronet of the same flowers in her hair. The flower girl wore a floor-length dress of turquoise net over taffeta and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of pale yellow primroses with the same flowers in her hair.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Noah Adams of Palo Alto wore a blue and white printed chiffon afternoon dress and Mrs. Ford wore a jersey print.

Flanking the entrance were potted yellow azaleas and arrangements of pale yellow Banksia roses were used in the living room. A profusion of spring flowers decorated the specious reception rooms and the buffet table in the dining room was decorated with a formal arrangement of calla lillies, white stock and white lilacs. Candelabras of tall white candles were also used on the table as on the mantel in the living room where the ceremony was performed. The wedding march was played by Miss Jennie Lois Bridgeford of Berkeley.

After the ceremony the couple left by auto for a honeymoon after which they will be at home to friends in Los Altos.

The groom is the son of the late David Hugh Stafford of Gloversville, New York and is an official of the telephone company in San Francisco.

The ammeter, too, can be watched with profit.

She has her modern gas range on active duty in an all-out effort to utilize fully the nutritive, health-giving qualities of all food she cooks. Soon her gas range will be busier than ever with home canning and preserving.

NAVY RELIEF SOCIETY SEEKS PUBLIC DONATIONS

SAN FRANCISCO — Northern California's campaign to secure $257,000 as its share of the national quota of $5,000,000 for the Navy Relief Society is now organized under the able leadership of men and women of forty-eight counties, Richard M. Tobin, general chairman of the Twelfth Naval District fund committee reported at a meeting today.

All persons who are not solicited by personal contact and who desire to subscribe to the fund may send their contributions to the Northern California Navy Relief Society, No. 2 McAllister Street, San Francisco.

This is the first time in the 142 years that the Navy Relief Society has been in existence that an appeal to the public has been made. It is necessary because of the unusually heavy demand upon the resources of the Society following the assault by the Japanese on Pearl Harbor which cost the lives and injuries to more Navy men and Marines than were suffered in the Spanish American and World Wars combined.

In this city, Mayor Rossi has designated Saturday, April 11 as Navy Relief Day. From this date on there will be a series of entertainment events, indoors and outdoors to raise San Francisco's share amounting to $85,000.

Admiral H. R. Stark, USN, president of the organization, says: "The Navy Relief Society belongs to the Navy and is one of its most cherished possessions. It was organized by the Navy and within the Navy to look after the Navy's own. It came officially into being nearly forty years ago. For all these years it has lived on its own income and the generosity of the officers and men of the service."

ARMY SEEKS MEN QUALIFIED AS ENGINEERS

Men with experience as Tool Dressers, Concrete Construction Foremen, Crane Shovel Operators, Rock Crusher Foremen, Electrician Foremen and Electricians are desired and applicants are advised to bring with them letters from present or former employers or other documentary evidence to prove that they have the necessary qualifications Colonel Perkins stated.

If you have the necessary qualifications here is your opportunity to choose your branch of service and also to use your talents to the best advantage both to your country and to yourself.

Call today at your nearest U. S. Army Recruiting Station for full information.

Recruiting Offices are located at: 32 Federal Office Buliding and 444 Market Street in San Francisco; New Post Office Building in Oakland; and 211 New Post Office Building in San Jose.

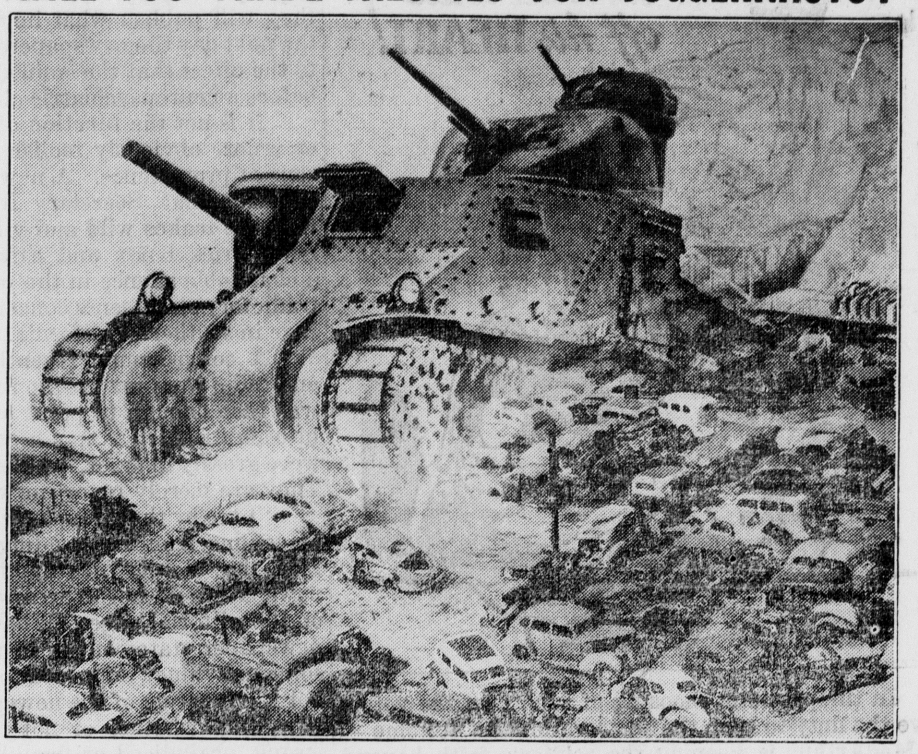
WILL YOU TRADE JALOPIES FOR JUGGERNAUTS?



Twenty-four ancient cars, like those shown in this photo-montage by Clem Albers, will make one medium tank for Uncle Sam's Army, according to the Bureau of Industrial Conservation of the War Production Board. Government experts urge citizens who have such jalopies to give or sell them to auto graveyards in their district. Even one battered wreck, WPB analysts declare, yields enough metal for 1200 hand grenades or 30 one hundred pound bombs.

PURPOSE OF NEW QUESTIONAIRES IS EXPLAINED

SACRAMENTO — Announcing the distribution of Occupational Questionnaires to California men who registered on February 14-15-16, Brig. General Joseph O. Donovan, state director of selective service, urged that they give careful thought to their skills, experience and aptitudes when filling out these forms, so that the best possible use of their services may be made in the Nation's war effort.

The questionnaire, which is being distributed to February registrants by their local boards, later will be sent to registrants of the First and Second Registrations and those of future registrations, General Donovan said. Its purpose is an inventory of the present employment activities of registrants and of their skills or abilities. It has no connection with, and is not to be confused with the regular Selective Service Questionnaire which is sent to all registrants to obtain data on which Selective Service classification is based, General Donovan emphasized.

The data obtained through the Occupational Questionnaire, the Director said, will be forwarded through State Headquarters to the National Roster of Scientific and Specialized Personnel and to the United States Emoplyment Service. It will be used by these federal agencies, respectively, to locate persons with certain professional and scientific qualifications and those who have skills or aptitudes in critical or essential occupations for the ultimate purpose of achieving a more complete and efficient utilization of the Nation's manpower in the war production program.

TOWNSHIP YOUTHS GET RIFLE MEDALS

MISSION — Sometime ago the boys of the Tangle and Twist Jr. Rifle team held a qualification contest sponsored by the Civilian Marksmen of the War Department. Last week the medals arrived and each boy received his medal as follows: Expert medals won by Kenneth Calhoun and Arthur Kimber of Niles, and Robert Hunt of Newark. Sharpshooter medal won by Ronald Barton of Newark. Those winning the marksman medal were: Frank Scammon, Wesley Hammond, Donald Silveria, all of Ivington, Bert Justus of Mission San Jose, George Smith, Decoto, Oliver Benbow of Newark and Wayne Calhoun of Niles.

The boys meet every other Wednesday evening at the Newark club house of the P. G. & E. under the direction of Paul Hunt, instructor. Some of the boys are becoming very efficient in the handling of firearms.

Morris Jones of Pasadena visited his son Warren Jones in Niles last Thursday.

NEWARK FIRST AID STUDIES CONTINUE AT FIRE STATION

NEWARK — A short meeting of the Newark auxiliary firemen was held Tuesday evening at the fire station with twenty-two members present. Werner Anton Frendesen was a new member taken into the auxiliary group to patrol section 2. James Dias, who resides on Locust street, is captain of section 2.

There was no drilling Sunday as most of the members were not able to be present because of Easter Sunday. Section 5 is scheduled to drill this Sunday and Captain Lee Wilson urges his group to be present.

Following the short meeting the second First Aid class was held with five new members added to the roll. The new members are Werner Frendesen, Tony Ornellas, Manuel Santos, Willard Raber and Frank Caldeira.

Ray Truscott of Newark, chairman of First Aid in Washington Township, who is the instructor for these classes each Tuesday evening at the fire station states that Mr. Bauhofer in Centerville has donated his trucks during an emergency along with Mr. Gygax of Newark with his delivery truck to be used as mobile units to carry first aid supplies and equipment and even injured people, if necessary.

DAUGHTER CHRISTENED

CENTERVILLE — Mr. and Mrs. August Davilla entertained friends on Sunday in honor of the christening of their infant daughter. The baby was named Madeline with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Cardoza of Irvington acting as godparents.

AT M. P. SCHOOL

NEWARK — Corporal Clarence J. Martin, whose home is on Ash street in Newark, has been transferred to the Military Police School at Fort Benning, Georgia. While at Fort Mason in San Francisco Corporal Martin was attached to the Military Police Battalion.

ADVICE GIVEN ON HOW TO ADDRESS SOLDIERS

Specific instrlctions regarding the addressing of mail to soldiers serving outsde the United States were issued today by the Western Defense Command and Fourth Army.

It was emphasized that some mail is not being delivered despite every effort of the Army and the Post Office Department because letters are not being properly addressed.

Before each soldier leaves the United States he is told what his Army Post Office number will be and he knows what his regiment is. This information is sent by him to those with whom he expects to correspond.

The additional essential element is that letters be sent care of the postmaster handling the mail bound for that unit.

Thus the correct form of address for soldiers serving in the Far East would be:

Private Albert Smith
Company B
908th Infantry Regiment,
A.P.O. No. 53
Care of Postmaster, San Francisco

In case of troops serving in Alaska, the same form should be used except that the letter should be sent, "Care of Postmaster, Seattle."

For troops serving in the European zone, mail should be similarly addressed, but "Care of Post master,, New York."

Letters shoud be written on only one side of the paper so that if anything is deleted by the censor it will not ruin what might be written on the other side.

"One extra plane..."

. . . or extra tank, or extra gun, or extra ship completed tomorrow may, in a few months, turn the tide on some distant battlefield; it may make the difference between life and death for some of our fighting men."

—President Roosevelt,
February 23, 1942.

Would you be the one who failed to help buy that plane, tank, or ship—by failing to buy your share of Bonds? Could you sleep nights knowing that American boys were being killed because you and others "put off" doing your part?

Remember, they are OUR boys now—from your State, your town, perhaps your very home. They're out there risking their lives—giving their lives—so that America, your free America, can live. And just as you are counting upon them to give everything they've got, so they are counting upon you to give everything you've got—by working harder than you ever have before and by investing in Bonds to the very limit of your powers!

Can they count on you? Make your answer ring clear and true—let our boys know that every man, woman, and child in America is behind them 100%! Go to your local post office, bank, savings and loan association, or other official sales agency today. Pledge yourself to buy all the Bonds you can—regularly, every pay day until this war is won! The more Bonds you buy, the more planes will fly.

SCOUTS LEARNING DEFENSE WORK IN THIS COUNTY

OAKLAND — More than 300 Scouts of the Oakland Area Council have completed the required course of training to become messengers in the Civilian Defense organization of Alameda County. The course which was in session for three days included fire and gas defense, civilian defense organization, and other instructing which had previously been presented to air raid wardens and block wardens.

The closing ceremony yesterday at Camp Dimond included the presentation of messenger arm bands and credentials to the Scouts having completed the required training. Presentation of the credentials was handled by District Attorney Ralph A. Hoyt, chief coordinator of defense for Alameda County, Homer Buckley, coordinator of the Oakland defense organization and Superior Judge Frank M. Ogden, President of the Oakland Area Council.

Similar courses of training have also been completed in Hayward, Berkeley, Alameda and Piedmont during the past few days. This training will enable the Scouts to form the nerve center of the Communications Department of civilian defense work. Senior Scouts having completed the required training to be awarded the emergency service Scout badge have been assigned to work with the mobile first aid units under the direction of the American Red Cross.

According to Homer J. Bemiss, Scout Executive of the Oakland Scout organization, other courses of messenger training will be offered so that additional enrollment in the corps can be continued. Announcement of these courses will be made as soon as arrangements can be completed with the Alameda County Council of Defense, Bemiss said.

More than 300 Scouts have been awarded Junior American Red Cross first aid certificates during the past 60 days, it was learned today. These Scouts have completed the first aid training as a regular part of their advancement work which ties into the program of National Defense.

COUNCIL ISSUES NEW AIR RAID INSTRUCTIONS

NEWARK—Newark citizens are asked to take notice of the recent Air Raid and Blackout information released by the Alameda County Council of Defense.

(1) Casualties that can sit up are to be transported in passenger cars to first aid stations.

(2) All persons on the streets during an air raid should wear steel helmets to protect themselves from anti-aircraft shell fragments.

(3) It is advisable for persons walking in a blackout to carry a white sheet of paper or an unfolded newspaper to avoid collisions among pedestrians.

(4) Attics should be cleared of all Combustible material.

(5) The purpose of a blackout is not to conceal the city or town but to conceal vital points within the city or town and to make it easier to detect enemy agents who are using lights with which to signal enemy planes.

WARDENS' MEETING

DECOTO — The monthly meeting of Township Air Raid Wardens and Sheriff's Deputies was held in the schoolhouse here Monday night and the members heard a lot of important news from L. W. Musick, Decoto chairman of Deputies, who had just completed a two weeks civilian defense course at Stanford University, instruction being given by the Western Defense Command.

MISSION — The Red Cross group not only held their regular sewing circle on Wednesday of last week, under the direction of Mrs. Eleana Perriera, but also enjoyed a treat of cake and coffee for their continued help every week. Mrs. Lena Solon furnished the coffee and Mrs. Mary Rogers the delicious pineapple filled coconut cake to go with it. This program will be carried out as long as there is sewing to do for the Red Cross.

Mrs. George Rose and Mrs. Marion Frick gave a shower on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Richard Davis.

LIBERTY WAR!

The President must be an ardent reader of this unheard of village "weakly."

On Sunday, April 6 he broadcast to the American people an appeal to find a suitable name for this war. He objected to the terms World War II or Second World War, asserting these titles were not suitable.

In the issue of The Township Register of Friday, February 13, page six — seven weeks ago — your editor wrote:

.. "Nor is this World War II because the last war was not World War I. Only the eastern hemisphere was the scene of war last time; what about the western hemisphere? Isn't the western hemisphere part of the world, too?

.. "The world" is an imaginary designation, like the equator or the north pole. The world itself cannot fight, nor can it fight itself. Ergo, how can the world fight a world war? The world is nothing; men are everything.

"Peoples and nations of people can and do fight, and are fighting.

This is a Peoples' War for Liberty. It is a universal war. It is a War for Liberation of downtrodden peoples and nations. It is a LIBERTY WAR; not a "world war", which is a silly designation and a product of weak minds."

Having read none of which The President led off the search for a proper name for the present war with the title: LIBERTY WAR.

Great minds — run in different channels, of course!

Now go on with your work! — W.W.

"GOD GIVE US MEN"

Never has an election year come in circumstances more solemn or dramatic than those of 1942. While millions of Americans will be standing in voting booths, deciding freely upon candidates and issues, other Americans will be dying in far places so that the government of the American people shall endure for our children and our children's children.

With ballots made valid with American blood, Californians will elect a war-crisis Governor and other officials, and throughout America congressmen and State officials will be named. The soundness, the wisdom, the fundamental rightness of democratic self-rule faces a supreme test.

Generations ago, when the wounds of the Civil War were yet bleeding and the fevers of fraternal hatreds and sectional bitterness racked the public mind, an American editor, Josiah Gilbert Holland wrote a poem that was a prayer on an election eve. He did not plead for victory for any man, any party, any creed, any factional cause. He wrote:

"God give us men! A time like this demands
Strong minds, great hearts, true faith, ready hands;
Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
Men whom the spoils of office can not buy;
Men who possess opinion and a will;
Men who have honor; men who will not lie."

A time like this, too, demands men — men of strong minds, great hearts, true faith, ready hands. It isn't of primary importance in this embattled democracy whether the individual candidate for public service be Jew, Gentile, Republican, Democrat, Catholic, Protestant, conservative or liberal. It is of the utmost consequence that all be men whom the lust of office does not kill, whom the spoils of office cannot buy, men who have honor, men who will not lie.

Editorial Page of the Township Register

In the patriotic choosing of such men the voters have the duty to keep the democratic faith at home — as MacArthur is keeping the soldier's faith beyond the Pacific.

TOUGHENING FOR THE PARENTS. .

Mothers and fathers who worry about the softness of the younger generation might be better off to give more concern to the softness of themselves and their friends.

In the tough times that are coming soon, it is going to be a difficult struggle for the millions of modern parents, who have injured their health and strength and fortitude by years of easy living, to give up their luxuries and comforts.

Most of us realize by now that the sacrifices we have been hearing about for the past two years are no false rumors. There was a time when a lot of us just listened and decided we'd worry about them when they came — and if they came. Some are still hoping at this late hour that something will happen which will suddenly blow the black clouds of sacrifice in some other direction . . . and are living accordingly.

This tendency to cling to things as they were until the last possible moment appears to be a lot more prevalent among parents than among their boys of military age. The boys are volunteering, many of them. just as they did 20 years ago, but many of their parents are resisting to the last any move to volunteer for the role which they must eventually play in this all-out war.

There's not much doubt that the boys in the army will give everything they have to win this war. Let's hope their parents will do likewise. — The Castro Valley Reporter.

GROUNDING THE DEATH DRIVER

Should the rubber shortage become so acute that all pleasure motoring were banned, there would be one silver streak in the dark cloud of transportation curtailment — the grounding of that deadly American phenomenon, the death driver.

A recent safety study shows that more Americans have been killed by automobiles than by all hostile armies in all wars since Lexington! .Since 1923, more than 500,000 highway accident deaths have been recorded — more than twice the 240,000 killed in the Revolutionary War, War of 1812, Mexican War, Indian Wars, Civil War, World War I, and this war to date!

The highway destroyer of life and property is as dangerous as a deliberate saboteur.. He should be grounder for the duration whenever his irresponsible tendencies are discovered.

"WE SEE BY THE NEWSPAPERS"

If a reputable scientist enlists the aid of newspapers in a project to build a railroad to the moon, they will publish what he has to say. And perhaps the next day the newspapers will be publishing a story to the effect that the eminent scientist has been taken before a neuropsychiatric clinic for a sanity test.

It is not the function of a newspaper to suppress or ignore obviously foolish statements made by persons of prominence. A news reporter has no right to conclude that Secretary Ickes should be protected when he makes wild and vitriolic statements, or that Secretaries Knox and Stimson should be accorded a charitable silence in the press when they issue contradictory statements concerning an anti-aircraft barrage in southern California.

A congressman recently complained that press and radio were inaccurate in reporting war news. He was rash enough to point out specific instances, and in each instance it was a case where public officials were grossly in error, not the newspapers or the radio. They are merely reporting what had been said.

"I see by the newspaper" is a common expression as coming from the reading public. As a matter of fact, they don't "see by the newspapers," for the newspapers do not express opinion in the news, only on the editorial pages. What the reader confuses as a newspaper statement is invariably a quotation from some individual, supposed to be an authority, but it is not the function of the newspaper to determine in the newsstory whether or not the statement is right or wrong, prejudiced or frankly truthful. It is enough that someone of consequence said it. The rest is left to the people.

Public officials make many unfortunate remarks; find themselves out on a limb because of erroneous conclusions publicly stated. We should judge them by Lincoln's method—of weighing their blunders against their constructive acts, to discover which is the more pronounced in the long run, their boneheaded plays or their brilliant successes. But don't blame newspapers because public men often talk or act like persons with arrested mentality. — The Covina Argus.

VIEWS & OBSERVATIONS

By The Editor

ONE READS now and then of a merchantman being attacked, turning and ramming the submarine. If more merchantmen tried this, notwithstanding the danger, more submarines would be sunk.

A ship approaching bow-on makes a much smaller mark to shoot at, and even though an attacking merchant ship is facing shell fire as it approaches the sub, imagine the consternation on the sub as a big ship bears down on it! It takes several minutes for a sub to prepare to submerge. The ship being shelled is liable to be sunk whether it turns on the sub or not: were it not better for the vessel to try and ram the sub?

If American ships all pursued the practice, that is, those which are not sunk by the first torpedo fire, the nasty nazi subs would little by little lose their nerve.

"Every effort pays at last its cost."

THE SPIRIT of the downtrodden peoples in Europe must be reviving. Tuesday night's Richfield Reporter said that munition manufacturing throughout Europe was being considerably delayed by sabotage from within.

The greatest powder plant near Berlin had been rendered useless for days by sabotage; the great Skoda plant in Czecho-Slovakia ditto; Germans killed and troop trains wrecked in Rumania, Bulgaria and France.

That's all good news. The conquered peoples know they are going to die under the dictator's heel anyway; they might as well do some damage first before they die.

A brave guerilla chieftain in Yugoslavia still goes on fighting against terrible odds; and Wainwright still holds in Bataan against odds of 10 to 1.

So the debacle of war, bloodshed, cruelty and death goes on in this supposed Year of our Lord, One Thousand, Nine Hundred and Forty Two.

The FARMERS CORNER

by RALPH H. TAYLOR
Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

California voters have been on trial before the American bar of public opinion several times in recent years as to their political sanity — and now, it appears, we must stand trial again, unless the great majority of our electors have the good sense not to sign the new Ham and Eggs pension petitions, which are now in circulation.

The stigma of crackpotism was erased in 1939, when our voters repudiated the spurious Thirty-Every-Thursday scheme by a smashing majority, but not before our financial solvency, as well as our sanity, had been called into serious question.

The nation not only laughed at us; it pitied us — and slowed up its trade with us, fearful that we would try to pay our bills with "funny money". Until the voters smothered the scheme under an avalanche of "No" votes, and restored the nation's confidence in our intelligence and financial integrity, prospective investors refused to make investments here. Agriculture suffered; business and industry suffered; thousands of workers suffered for lack of employment — and nearly a million "elder citizens" in California were cruelly imposed upon by conscienceless promoters, who fattened on tribute exacted from the trusting oldsters.

It seems unthinkable that any considerable number of voters would knowingly sign petitions calling for a repeat order of that disastrous, disillusioning experience, but unfortunately many voters are in the habit of signing first — and counting the cost afterwards. And unhappily, too, there are still thousands hunting for the illusive pot of gold at the end of the rainbow; there are still many who believe in the quack doctrine of "something for nothing." And unfortunately, there are still others willing to make any kind of a political deal to serve their own selfish ends.

During recent weeks advertisements have started to appear in newspapers in many sections of the State, announcing mass meetings for the new Ham and Eggs amendment, staged under the joint auspices of the Payroll Guarantee Association and organized labor.

One such advisement, appearing in a Fresno newspaper of February 10, and signed by "Ham 'N' Eggs & Organized Labor," urged the public to attend a "Mammoth Mass Meeting to Celebrate Our Voting Alliance". The advertisement emphasized that there would be speeches against the bill prohibiting secondary boycotts and "hot cargo" practices, as well as for the Ham and Eggs pension scheme.

Then appeared this paragraph:

"The public, all members and friends of Ham 'N' Eggs, all members of labor unions, A. F. of L., C. I. O., Brotherhoods and California State Grange are cordially invited to attend our first great public mass meeting of 1942."

In all probability, use of the name of the California State Grange in that advertisement was unauthorized, for it is hard to visualize any group of farmers joining in a campaign designed to aid labor in continued use of its vicious secondary boycott weapon against the farming industry. But the mere fact that the sponsors of the meeting had the effrontery to use the name of the Grange in the advertisement is evidence that it is time for California farmers to exercise the greatest vigilance, not only with respect to petitions they may be asked to sign, but in affiliations they may be asked to make.

When the Ham and Eggs pension leaders entered into a compact with labor to assist in defeating the bill which would outlaw "hot cargo" and use of the secondary boycott, they entered into a compact against California agriculture. Any farmer who has seen his crops tied up, and rotting in the fields or warehouses, due to labor disputes utterly beyond his control, knows that. But the Ham and Eggs promoters apparently think that the farmer is so gullible that he will join in a movement to bring about his own downfall. On election day, they will have cause to think differently, but in the meantime farmers need to heed the old admonition against signing blank checks. The gold brick boys are out with their petitions again!

"Easter gladness"

"Let us sing of Easter gladness
That rejoices every day,
Sing of hope and faith uplifted;
Love has rolled the stone
away."

Is not the true message of Easter one of gladness? The daily remembrance of that first Easter Day will uplift hope and faith to rehearse this message of man's immortality, rekindling in men's hearts the spirit of "Easter gladness."

Jesus of Nazareth fulfilled his Christ-like mission among men. He brought practical proof of the efficacy of uplifted faith, and he answered that age-old question of all men, "Is man immortal and life eternal?" Every act in his earthly ministry became a living text, restating afresh the basic message of the Christ (John 10:30), "I and my Father are one."

His mighty works continue to inspire the hearts of men, to resurrect all mankind from earth-bound theories and beliefs. Not only did Christ Jesus raise the dead, but he also brought renewed life to those who were buried in mortal thinking. For to believe that man is mortal, man-made, sinful, sick, dying, is to seem to be so, while to behold man as deathless, spiritual, God-like, is to experience resurrection. The "I" to which Jesus continually referred is the divine nature eternally expressed in man, the Christlikeness or scientific relationship which forever exists between God and His idea. . . .

In "Miscellaneous Writings" Mary Baker Eddy writes (p. 154), "It is the purpose of divine Love to resurrect the understanding, and the kingdom of God, the reign of harmony already within us." What a glorious Easter Day dawns when we discern the true resurrection—"the reign of harmony already within us"!

The world today appears dreary and drab for many. Never before has there been a more urgent need for "Easter gladness" within the hearts of mankind. . . .

What if the evidence of the senses points to helplessness, futility, defeat, frustration! Those were the same arguments repeated centuries ago, when he who was known to the world as Jesus of Nazareth was in a tomb working out for all the world the truth of man's immortality. Angels were to roll away the stone from before that tomb and Christ Jesus was to step forth, a living answer to the argument of mortality, to the world's fear, ignorance, and sin.

Speaking of "our angelic messengers" in a marginal note, Mrs. Eddy states on page 299 of the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "My angels are exalted thoughts, appearing at the door of some sepulchre, in which human belief has buried its fondest earthly hopes. With white fingers they point upward to a new and glorified trust, to higher ideals of life and its joys." Unnumbered men and women throughout the world have been delivered from entombment in the carnal mind sepulchers of fear, ignorance, and sin. "Exalted thoughts" of God's presence and omnipotence have rolled away those stones of false belief, uplifting hope and faith to behold man's oneness with God.

How tenderly Jesus reassured his disciples of the eternal relationship between God and man when he said (John 14:2), "I go to prepare a place for you"! He was assuring them of the certainty of resurrection and ascension for all who follow in his footsteps, however dark the human way may seem. Their hearts must have queried: "Where is our beloved Teacher going? To what place?" Those questions were to remain unanswered for a time. But the promise he gave brought them comfort; many times angels were to deliver them and they were to prove for themselves something of "Easter gladness."

Jesus' disciples had to learn, as all must likewise do, that the ascension of Christ Jesus did not consist of the one moment when he passed from their sight. On his ascending thoughts they must learn to model their own. In the spirit of Truth and Love, which the Christ expresses, there remains forever that which prepares men's hearts for acceptance of the kingdom of God within, for acknowledgment of their place in the "Father's house." This is the eternal benediction, "I go to prepare a place for you." Our recognition of the meaning of these words gives us something of the true gladness of Easter.—The Christian Science Monitor.

CAR ECONOMY DRIVE STARTED IN THIS STATE

Geared to protect California's transportation facilities against any breakdown, a State-wide, five-point "Drive For Victory" motor vehicle conservation program, featuring a voluntary speed limit of 40 miles an hour, is being launched today. More than 300 civic, business and fraternal organizations, including the California State Chamber of Commerce, the California Newspaper Publishers Association, the California State Automobile Association, the California Safety Council, and the Automobile Club of Southern California are sharing the leadership in carrying the conservation program to every driver in the State.

The California motorist, as his important contribution to the all-out car saving campaign on the home front, will be asked:

1. To drive voluntarily under 40 miles an hour as requested by President Roosevelt.

2. To set up a strict personal mileage budget, curtailing all unnessary driving.

3. To share business driving with friends neighbors or fellow employees on a turn-about basis.

4. To have his automobile and tires thoroughly inspected regularly by competent mechanics to assure maximum life.

5. To cooperate in the wartime program of staggered business hours to relieve over-loads on available mass transportation facilities.

"Drive For Victory" windshield stickers will be distributed by the cooperating agencies starting next week. Serving as a constant reminder to the driver and other motorists to slow down and conserve rubber will be the prominent "Keep It Under 40" slogan inscribed on the windshield insignia.

LIBRARY STUDENTS ENJOY TOUR OF COUNTY FACILITIES

OAKLAND — The annual tour to Alameda County libraries made by each year's class attending the School of Librarianship at the University of California took place on Thursday according to Mrs. Dorothy Roberts, County Librarian.

More than fifty students and instructors visited typical library branches in this county to see at first hand how these libraries operate. They made the trip in a large chartered motor coach. The tour started at the County Library headquarters in the Oakland Court House, where the visitors met the staff of library workers there and studied the work carried on. The group proceeded to the famous brooder branch at Castro Hill and then to the typically modern branch library at Centerville. Afterward, Miss Josephine Herbert, in charge of the Centerville Elementary school library, explained the affiliated work of that library and the County Library system.

The students took the lilac-bordered road to the Water Tower at Sunol where they had a picnic lunch. At that time, Mrs. Maryetta W. Holman spoke of the function of the Farm Advisor and the Home Demonstration Agent in Alameda County, showing the cooperation between these agencies and the public libraries.

The afternoon included visits to the branch library at Sunol, which has headquarters in the home of Miss Mary Buttner, and to the Livermore Public Library, in charge of Miss Myrtle Harp. The day ended with a visit to the sanitorium at Arroyo Del Valle where patients and staff make intensive use of library facilities made available by the County Library.

ARMY ADDS FOUR NEW CALIFORNIA ASSEMBLY POINTS

In order to facilitate the Pacific Coast evacuation program the Army's Wartime Civil Control Administration today acquired four additional sites for use as assembly centers.

The sites include The Tanforan Race Track, near San Francisco; the Los Angeles County Fair grounds, Pomona the Turlock, fair grounds and the Salinas Rodeo grounds at Salinas, General Dewitt said. This location will accomodate 3000 evacuees until they are relocated. Housing is already under construction.

The assembly centers will house and feed evacuees after they are convoyed from residential districts. These centers will serve as assembly points for large numbers of evacuees. Army officers stressed the importance of establishing such centers in order to accelerate the tempo of the evacuation.

Another reason for establishing the centers is to prevent the separation of families and communities. Under the present plan Japanese communities will be evacuated intact to the nearest assembly center.

The total capacity of the four centers is 17,400 persons. Tanforan will accomodate 10,000 evacuees; the Pomona fair grounds, already leased to the Army will house 5,000 and Turlock 1,200.

The Japanese will remain in the assembly centers until the reception center or relocation sites further inland are ready for settlement.

The announcement emphasized that the assembly points are to be used for the purpose of assembling evacuees who will later be moved to reception centers such as that established as Manzanar in Owens Valley, California, when the latter are made ready to receive them.

The assembly points previously announced, including Santa Anita Race Track near Los Angeles, which is already in use, are located elsewhere in California, in or near Marysville, Sacramento, Stockton, Turlock, Merced, Fresno, and Pinedale, Fresno County, and Tulare.

Construction work is already underway at the newly announced points.

FIRST ANTELOPE HUNTING IN FIFTY YEARS ALLOWED

SAN FRANCISCO — Applications for antelope hunting permits will be received by the California State Division of Fish and Game up to midnight April 20. These forms may be obtained from any office of the Division or from local patrol captains.

After April 20, there will be a drawing to determine the lucky five-hundred who will enjoy the first antelope hunting in California in over fifty years.

When the names of the five-hundred applicants have been drawn, they will be notified to remit the $5 fee and be issued a permit. A second set of names shall be drawn, to substitute for anyone failing to remit his $5 within a given time. A 1941-42 hunting license is also required.

The season on male antelope will open from May 29 to June 14, inclusive, and hunting will be permitted only in portions of Lassen and Modov Counties.

Mrs. Harry Van Horn Jr. and her infant son, Harry Edwin Van Horn IV are expecting to return to their Niles home next Tuesday from the Alameda Sanitarium where the young man was born.

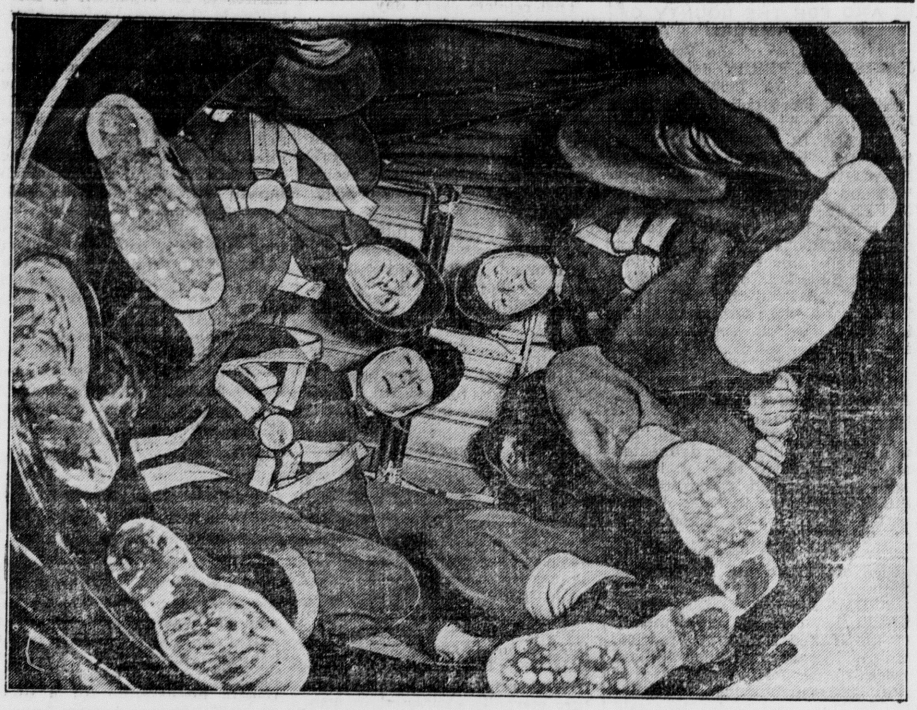
THEY JUMPED BY NIGHT



WITH THEIR FACES and even teeth painted black, British parachute troops like these floated out of the night over Occupied France recently in the first important mass raid on the European continent since the fall of France. They quickly captured and blew to bits an important German radio-locator station near the coast, then—taking the surviving Nazis with them as prisoners — fought their way back to the beaches, where the Navy was waiting to pick them up for the homeward journey. The four men in this photo are shown looking down through the hole in the fuselage of their Whitley transport, preparatory to jumping.

BRITISH TULIPS FEATURE ANNUAL NILES BULB SHOW

By George C. Roeding, Jr., Pres. California Nursery Co.

"There is never a dull moment in my garden," is a remark made frequently by many of my friends. How true it is, particularly at this season of the year when there is an ever changing panorama of spring flowering bulbs, flowering trees, and shrubs. The Eleventh Annual Outdoor Bulb Show now in progress at Niles is no exception. This week-end, as the latest blooming narcissi appear, there are thousands of tulips and dutch iris to take over the happy task of supplying garden beauty. The useful ranunculus in individual colors and mixed beds of all colors carry through the daffodil season and well into the tulip period.

Today's visitors to the bulb show will see a gorgeous array of domestic and imported British tulips in bloom. Choicest at this time are the Cottage tulips with colors varying from the pure white Miss Blanche through pinks such as John Ruskin, Rosabella, and Dido; into the brilliant flame of Grenadier. Darwin William Pitt, splendid red, and Yellow Giant are in splendid color now.

A source of joy and enlightenment to all tulip fans is the splendid display afforded by the last Holland importations. These bulbs were planted in the fall of 1939. This is their third season of bloom in the original undisturbed beds. This week we find excellent flowers, and more of them than ever, on almost a dozen varieties of yellow tulips and three splendid whites. Only one or two of these excellent varieties are available from domestic sources now, but tulip enthusiasts will do well to make note of these long-lasting types so that when they are available from our own growers they will be able to select varieties that are really choice.

Keeping a supply of blue flowers for the house is usually a problem for the home flower arranger, but not for the gardener who had the foresight to plant dutch iris last fall. There will be seven or eight varying shades of blue in the large dutch iris bed this week and next. Choose your favorite shades from violet-blue to deep-blue. There will be flowers of the popular White Excelsior and Yellow Queen for variety.

An air express shipment of cut narcissi just received at Niles from Oregon reminds us that our northern neighbors are just beginning to enjoy their bulb season. New introductions still rare to most of us were a big part of the shipment. You should see the brilliant contrasts in these newest introductions! Expensive, yes, but tempting to the collector. We marvel at the pure orange red cup of Goldshell, the deep fuchsia-red cup of Damson. Sunfirm reminds us of John Evelyn, with its ruffled and frilled cup. Huge Glory of the Morn has a creamy yellow perianth and flaring cup of deep yellow; frilled orange margin.

"MISS AMERICA" CAMPAIGN GETS UNDER WAY HERE

HAYWARD — The Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, Hayward Post Number 1882 "Metropolitan Minstrels", Pageant, and Dance will be held at the Veterans Memorial Building in Hayward, Saturday May 16. All of the young ladies of Alameda County, particularly Niles are invited to assist and take part in this worthy celebration. Every girl has an equal chance, first to obtain the highest honors, that of "MISS AMERICA" to reign over this wonderful occasion, and then there will be the "Ladies-of-the Court", with the grand prizes, honors and festive ceremonies of this worthy celebration and events they bring with them.
